COMMENT
Comment:	Please note that this meeting conflicts with back-to-school events and forces parents to choose engaging with SUSD or advocating for their family and neighborhoods in civic governance. Grateful for the online forum but would prefer to be at this meeting. Please don't interpret low attendance for apathy. In fact, the people most willing to invest their time and energy in the community are unable to attend these kinds of public outreach sessions because they are volunteering or working at the grassroots level.
