DEVELOPMENT PROPOSAL

The applicant is requesting design approval of an existing mural that is located on the south and east elevations of an existing commercial building. The mural was commissioned by the applicant in early 2020 but did not receive required design approval. Code enforcement issued a Notice of Violation for the exterior color change without approval in May of 2020 and the violation is still active.

The existing mural wraps around the east and south building elevation and consists of a vibrant desert landscape including purple mountains, green desert plants, an Arizona Flag, and gold championship belt. The mural also extends to the interior patio courtyard and lattice which includes colorful freedom fighters.

Based on previous Development Review Board approval of murals, the artwork is typically limited to one building elevation to function as an accent wall and not overwhelm the existing architecture. In discussions with the applicant, staff recommended that the applicant repaint the exterior patio lattice and building elevations along the south side back to the original color scheme (red and tan respectively) but to retain the mural along the east elevation. This way the front façade facing the street is still a cohesive design but the mural along the east elevation is still visible to pedestrian and vehicular traffic along East Thomas Road travelling westbound. The applicant has agreed to the modification and stipulations are included to reflect this proposed change.

Development Review Board Criteria

Staff confirms that the development proposal, with the modified mural, generally meets the applicable Development Review Board Criteria. For a detailed analysis of the Criteria, please see Attachment #4.

STAFF RECOMMENDED ACTION

Staff recommends that the Development Review Board approve The Champs Live Here Mural development proposal per the attached stipulations, including repainting the southern patio lattice and building elevation to the original colors, finding that the Development Review Board Criteria have been met.

The mural that we painted is called “The Champs Live Here”. It is a testament to overcoming adversity. It is a reminder for us and our entire community to not give up when the going gets tough. It’s a message that Everyone needs right now.

History of the Painting

We have had a very difficult time right here on the corner of Thomas and Hayden. The City of Scottsdale did a road construction project right in front of our business that lasted 8 months. We lost over $100K during that time and most of our staff. I personally was homeless during the 8-month construction. I paid my employees, but I did not pay myself for that entire time.

I had to rent my house out in order to cover the mortgage. During the 8-month project, I fruitlessly reached out for help from the bottom of the city government all the way to the top. I finally had a conversation with the Mayor and he told me that I was “an unfortunate casualty for progress”. Nevertheless, we fought on. Just like I told him last summer, we will never stop fighting for survival.

The construction project was “completed” in late December of 2019. Although it never really seems to be over. Luckily, our community rallied behind us. Without their support, we would have gone out of business. After the dust cleared and the road opened back up, business started to thrive. We started to climb out of the hole we were in from construction.

Then, Covid hit in March. We lost the vast majority of our catering and food truck business for the busy spring season. The revenue from our busy spring time helps us to survive the summer. We lost dine in business, and we have been in survival mode ever since. Yet, we do not give up.

People all around us are struggling. Lost jobs, lost businesses, dreams shattered, lives ruined. So, we decided to paint an inspirational mural to remind people where they are and who they are; we live in the old west where settlers persisted against all odds.

Scottsdale is a city that was built on will, not on the backs of men and women that gave up easily. We are just another chapter in the long history of hard working, never quitting builders of Arizona history. We are champs because we will never give up, and if you never give up, you don’t lose. THAT is what it means to be a champion and that is what our Mural represents.

Mural Contents

The first picture to the right is our east facing mural. It is an Arizona sunset scene – Native plants, palm trees, and the Arizona flag with a gold star. The Arizona flag is positioned as the sunset over signature Arizona hills. Nestled in the hills, there is a championship belt. This mural is perpendicular to the road.

Then, the hills and sunset wrap around the south side of the building (second photo). This portion is parallel to the road.

It ties into the courtyard where we have our mural of a diverse group of luchadors. The luchadors are different colors, genders, shapes, and sizes. We call them the freedom fighters.

Our luchador faces represent all of the different people in our community who are fighting their own battles.

We want them to all know that we understand their struggles and this is a reminder that they are champs as long as they don't give up.

As you can see from the third and fourth photos, our courtyard has a wall and two big trees so it is pretty hard to see the mural work in the courtyard from the road.

I painted these barrier walls white and blue. However, I would be willing to repaint these walls in desert tones if that would please the committee. These walls are not important to the meaning of the mural.

Freedom Fighters

The pictures on this page show the freedom fighters on the inside of our courtyard.

This is a very important part of the mural because it shows that we are all equal and that we stand with our brothers and sisters in the fight for freedom.

At the end of the day, we understand that we violated the city ordinance for color, but we believe we made a positive change and are putting out a positive message for our Community.

We also believe that our mural makes the neighborhood more beautiful. Our landlord refuses to repaint the building and it looks terrible. It hasn't been painted in this century, for sure and it was an eye sore for the community. However, that eye sore was acceptable because it technically met city color codes.

So, while it may not exactly fit Scottsdale Color code for commercial buildings, it HELPS beautify the community. The color of the rest of the building is yellow with burnt sienna red trim. We have asked our landlord to repaint it since we moved in and they said they would, but never have.
