Citizen Review Plan

for

Consolidated Zoning Land Use Matrix Text Amendment 6-TA-2017

This Citizen Review Plan outlines the means by which potentially affected citizens of the proposed text amendment will receive early notification in order to promote citizen involvement. This Citizen Review Plan will also identify the method by which potentially affected citizens of the proposed text amendment will be provided the opportunity to express any issues or concerns prior to the notice of the first public hearing.

Notification

Potentially affected citizens of the proposed text amendment will receive notification by the following means:

- 1/8 page advertisement in the local newspaper for the dates and times of proposed open house meetings and hearings regarding the proposed text amendment.
- Postcard notifications will be sent to those citizens on the Planning Department's "Interested Parties" mailing list. Postcard mailings will include a postcard for open house meeting dates and another postcard for hearing dates.
- Proposed text amendment will be listed in Planning Department's P&Z Link, NextDoor, and Facebook electronic notification services.
- Proposed text amendment will be listed on city's webpage for viewing by the public, including open house meeting dates and proposed text amendment language.

Public Input Opportunities

Potentially affected citizens of the proposed text amendment will have the ability to provide public input by the following means:

- Written, e-mail, or phone input submitted to the project applicant/city staff contact.
- In-person input at either, or both, of the following open houses:
