Vice-Chair Schlosser asked if the Board should be looking at the strategies and objectives in the plan. Chair McMahon replied yes.

Vice-Chair Schlosser discussed an article he had read about the recycling contamination problems being created by the Air B&B activity in Scottsdale. He suggested the consideration of a new ordinance to require the Air B&B’s collect an additional charge on the guests like a deposit to specifically target the need to recycle properly.

Chair McMahon suggested the Vice-Chair to write up a couple of strategies for consideration in the plan regarding this item.

Board Member Englert suggested the targets in the plan were set too low and the time frames were set too long. Chair McMahon agreed and suggested there be interim or incremental target goals. Vice-Chair Schlosser noted no one was listed as responsible parties for the goals.
After some discussion regarding multi-family challenges, Chair McMahon asked the Vice-Chair to research and report on programs in San Francisco and Seattle.
